

Food Store To Get Air Conditioning

The board of directors of Greenbelt Consumer Services voted unanimously at its regular meeting Friday night to install an air-conditioning unit in the food store. Operating expense will be low because of the recently-installed well, it was said, and GCS will have the first air-conditioned supermarket in this area. The board also approved the manager's recommendation for a new truck for the service station.

Accept GCS Plan

Mrs. Carnie Harper reported that GCS's plan for Eastern Cooperatives, Inc., was accepted at the annual ECI meeting. George Davidson announced that a new cooperative food store has opened in Portsmouth and is doing a business of $5,000 per week. Highlights of the meeting of the Potomac Cooperative Federation given by Davidson were that the Hampton store has had an increase of $2,000 a week since that store was enlarged. The Federation is planning to publish a directory for cooperatives, defining the, listing them, and detailing their operation. A lecture on cooperatives will soon be sponsored by the Potomac Federation and the Washington Federation of Churches, said Davidson, with Toyohiko Kagawa as the speaker. The Federation will continue to sponsor the radio program "Cooperatives at Work" on station WCFM during the summer months.

Local Boy Chosen Outstanding Cadet

Francis A. (Slat) Swartz, who makes his home with his sister, Mrs. J. D. Anderson of 4-G Gardenway, was selected as the outstanding aviator cadet of the 50-B class at Nellis Air Force base in Las Vegas, Nevada.

He received his silver pilot's wings and commission as second lieutenant in the air force at graduation exercises held at the base last Friday, and will visit Greenbelt before reporting to his next assignment.

Last JCC Social To See Dance Group

Members of the Jewish Community Center will attend the final meeting of the season Saturday, May 20, in the social room of the community building at 8 p.m.

Miss Batya Heller and her dance group will present a classical dance recital. Miss Heller and her group have appeared on various concert stages in the Washington area. The program consists of "Dedication," which is especially choreographed in celebration of Israel's second anniversary; "The Last Flower," a satire on James Thurber's book by the same title; "Celebration," based on the Hora folk-dance.

In keeping with the Shevuoth holiday, traditional dishes of cheese blintzes, sour cream, home-made cake, and coffee will be served at a nominal charge.

This meeting-social, open only to members of the Jewish Community Center, is under the supervision of Mrs. Nettie Granims, chairman of the social committee.

Dean Pannel Addresses Women's Club Group

Dean Anne Pannell of Goucher College will address the Prince George's County Federation of Women's Clubs at its thirty-fourth annual luncheon meeting at 10:30 a.m. on Thursday, May 18, at the Prince George's Golf and Country Club, Landover, Maryland. "Responsibilities of the Citizen of Today" will be the subject of her address.

Shamrocks Win Opener, 16-4

The 1950 edition of the Greenbelt baseball team traveled to Snug Harbor last Sunday and trounced Ahl Brothers to the tune of 16 to 4. Bob Scott's left arm held complete mastery over the opposing batters for six innings; a 10 to 0 lead at that point allowed Scotty to coast until he tired with one out in the ninth and was relieved by Bill Alexander.

All Dressed Up

Nattily dressed in new uniforms given to the team by Greenbelt Consumer Services, the locals gained momentum through the early innings and exploded with seven runs in the seventh. Hugh "Bones" Taylor, better known for receiving the tosses of Sammy Baugh than pitching, started for Ahl Brothers and lasted until Greenbelt's big seventh. Bob Bickford started the rally as he stepped into one of Taylor's fast balls and poked it into the trees in deep left for a round tripper. Eleven men followed Bickford to the batter's box and when the dust cleared seven Shamrocks had crossed the plate; and Mr. Taylor was resting his "Bones" on the bench watching Bob Breen retire the side. When four more Shamrocks scored in the eighth, Breen joined Taylor on the bench and together they watched teammate Pentz hold Greenbelt to only two runs in the ninth.

Boggs Is Back

Paul Horst and Gil Carrillo led the hit parade with three hits each as three mates collected two each. Ernie Boggs, missing from the Greenbelt lineup for the past three years, was back in uniform and celebrated the event with a double to left center, driving across two runs.

The Shamrocks will open the season Sunday at Braden Field against a fast Lee's Tavern nine. Wild Bill Alexander will oppose Barney Wood, winner of a two-hit shutout last Sunday, on the mound.

Spring Concert Monday, May 22

The Greenbelt Community Chorus will present its annual spring concert on Monday, May 22, at 8:30 p.m. in the auditorium of the community building. The work of the chorus will be augmented by instrumental solos on the cello and piano played by artists from the University of Maryland. Professor Harlan Randall, director of the chorus, and Mrs. Randall will again present their repertoire of solos and duets. Mrs. Thelma Finlay, pianist, will accompany the vocal selection.

The program is as follows: Salutation, by Gaines; Let My People Go, Negro spiritual, with Ruth Chaney in a soprano solo; Recessional by de Koven, with William Dotson as tenor soloist; Song of the Vikings, by Fanning; Intermezzo from Cavalleria Rusticana, by Mascagni; Orientale, by Cui—James V. Miller, cellist; Now Let Every Tongue Adore Thee, by Bach; The Glory of God in Nature, by Beethoven; Romany Life, by Victor Herbert, with Martha Carroll as soprano soloist; two Chopin etudes by Clarence Whims, pianist; selected solos and duets by Dr. and Mrs. Randall; Carmencita, Mexican folk song; I Dream of Jeannie, by Stephen Foster; and a Czechoslovakian dance song.

Kan-Du Dances Tomorrow Night

The Kan-Du Club will hold its final dance of the season Friday, May 19, in the school auditorium. There will be "spring garden" decorations, a floor show, refreshments, and a prize of Arthur Murray dance lessons for the winners of a dance contest.

The next regularly scheduled meeting of the Greenbelt city council will be held on June 12. The council meets once a month during the summer on the second Monday of the month.

Bloomberg Named City Health Officer

Dr. Max Bloomberg has been appointed city health officer, according to City Manager Charles T. McDonald. Dr. Bloomberg, a specialist in pediatrics, first came to Greenbelt in 1947 and was with the Health Association from then until he started his private practice last February. He will begin his duties as public health officer next Tuesday.

Dr. Bloomberg will conduct the well-baby and immunization clinic next Tuesday morning from 9 to 10 a.m. in the public health office at 54-A Crescent. He announced that he will be at the clinic promptly at nine and advised mothers to come early to avoid waiting.

There is no charge for immunization shots.

The senior class of the Greenbelt high school will hold a bake sale in front of the Greenbelt Theatre tomorrow (Saturday) from 9 to 12.

Field Day Planned For May 23 & 24

Greenbelt elementary school students have invited their parents and friends to attend the annual Field Day which will be held on May 23 at 9:30 a.m. for the lower grades and on May 24 for the upper grades. All events will take place at Braden Field.

The meet will consist of dashes, relays, field events, and dodgeball games. All the boys and girls will participate in some Field Day activity, according to Sam Fox, Recreation Department director.

The track meet will be run on a point system. The room with the most points at the end of the day will win the meet for each grade.

All individual events will be scored on a 5-3-2-1 point basis, while team events will score 10-6-4-2. Judges and attendants will include volunteer parents and members of the Recreation Department.

3 Local Students Vie In Sidney Lust Finals

Three talented Greenbelt High School students will compete in the grand finals talent contest to be held at Sidney Lust's Cheverly Theatre this Saturday night at 8 p.m.

Miss Anzulovic won first prize at the All-Greenbelt High talent contest held at the Cheverly on March 11. Young Goudie and Miss Walker won second and third prize, respectively, in the same contest, and later were selected to appear in the grand finals after performing in a semi-finals show.

Competing against the three young Greenbelt entertainers will be prize winners from Hyattsville, Frederick, Sasser, Maryland Park, and Bladensburg High Schools.

The contest will climax a series of talent contests held at Sidney Lust Theaters during the past four months under the sponsorship of the Harvey Dairy.

Good Gov't. Group Hears Aims, Objective

A prospective Citizens' Committee for Good Government was discussed in the Hyattsville County Service Building in a public meeting Wednesday, May 17. Chairman of the meeting was William R. Turner, president of the Chillum Civic Association, who was introduced by Walter F. Mulligan, president of the county's Civic Federation.

Proposals

The report of a special committee of the Federation appointed to lay a foundation for the new citizens' committee was presented by Robert N. Balkam, Radiant Valley, proposing objectives for the new organization, suggested organizational details, and outlining the steps by which the citizens' committee could be organized.

Public discussion of the objectives and organization of the proposed committee was opened in a short talk by the chairman of the meeting defining the meaning of good government and its relation to present-day problems in Prince Georges County.

Aims Aired

The need for forming the citizens' committee will be discussed over radio station WGAY, Silver Spring, on Sunday, May 21, at 1:15 p.m. This program will be one of the Community Forum series conducted by Ernie Tannen of the WGAY staff and will present a number of the individuals speaking before the public meeting in a round table discussion.

Women Voters Hear Home Rule Address

Allen H. Gardner, a lawyer, will address the annual meeting of the League of Women Voters of Prince Georges County on Tuesday, May 23, at 8 p.m. in the Maryland Room on the campus of the University of Maryland. His topic will be "What is Home Rule?"

Mrs. Irma Bogdanoff, President of the Prince Georges County League of Women Voters, announces the following agenda: Reports of the National and State conventions, by Mrs. W. H. Wood and Mrs. J. D. Crichton. A discussion of the budget will be given by Mrs. D. R. Partello.

Elections

Election of officers to fill vacancies will then be held. The candidates are as follows: For first vice-president, Mrs. Georgia Benjamin; for treasurer, Mrs. Mary Partello; for director, Mrs. Mildred Conrad. Officers carried over for another year are president, Mrs. Irma Bogdanoff; second vice president, Mrs. L. Woodman; secretary, Mrs. W. Wood; and directors, Mrs. S. R. Epstein and Mrs. J. C. Crichton.

Mrs. H. Conrad will outline the League's proposed county program for the opening year, after which Mrs. Bogdanoff will give her president's report and award the yearly citations, which the League offers to one individual and one committee for outstanding service.

Light Touch

The radio committee will end the program with a skit entitled "Operation Madhouse," during which the members will be given the opportunity of laughing at themselves.

All parents who have not yet registered their children for kindergarten for 1950 have been asked to report to room 121, Center school, next Tuesday, May 23, from 1:30 to 2:30. Birth certificates and inoculation certificates will be required.

Council Votes 4-1 For Property Tax

By I. J. Parker

The personal property tax series went into extra innings this week when the city council met in special session Tuesday and decided by a four-to-one score to allow the tax to remain on the books. Lone dissenter was Francis Lastner who gets credit for the loss.

City Manager Charles T. McDonald smoked a home-run to clinch the victory when he presented a memorandum to the council which disclosed anticipated expenses the city will incur when property is dedicated to the city by PHA. Maintenance and repair of the community building presented the most important expense. Council members stated that it would be awkward to ask PHA for additional funds to cover "extraordinary expenses assumed in the operation of property by virtue of its acceptance."

The special session was called after discussions at the past two council meetings had failed to result in a final decision. Sam Ashelman, general manager of Greenbelt Consumer Services, had asked that early settlement of the problem be made so that negotiations for a bowling alley could proceed.

Other Ways Explored

Consideration was given to exploring other sources of revenue and ways of reducing the budget. The council could not find new sources of revenue but decided to accept a report by the city manager that recommended a savings of over $7000 through the curtailing of various services. (Cooperator, May 4). It was emphasized that the savings would have been recommended despite the personal property tax question, which involved a similar sum.

Lastner asked McDonald to prepare a report of probable future expenses resulting from acceptance of property dedicated to the city by PHA so that an estimate could be made regarding the tax rate. Lastner stated that he hopes the city will reduce the tax rate on personal property after the report is made. He reminded the council that the tax ordinance could be amended at any time.

Montgomery Orchestra Plays Final Concerts

The Montgomery Symphony Orchestra under the direction of Chester Petranek will bring its third musical season to a close with identical programs on May 21 at 3 p.m. and May 22 at 8:30 p.m. The Sunday afternoon program will be played in the Rockville High School, and the Monday performance will be given at the Leland Junior High School, 44th and Elm streets, in Chevy Chase.

Highlighting both programs will be three local Montgomery county artists, Jacqueline Lynch, William Groff, and Kai de Vermand, singing the roles of Marguerite, Faust, and Mephistopheles in selections for Gounod's "Faust". The bass, Mr. de Vermand, was formerly with the Chicago Opera Company.

The orchestral portion of the program will include Glinka's Russland and Ludmilla overture; Handel's Prelude and Fugue in D Minor; and Grofe's Mississippi Suite. Admission is free.

For those who cannot attend, the concerts will be broadcast over WBCC (1120 on the AM dial or 103.1 on FM.)

CORRECTION

The swimming pool will open on Saturday, May 27—not May 25, as erroneously announced in last week's Cooperator.

No. 39

Past Due Time

It's traditional in Greenbelt to blame Public Housing Administration for the ills that befall us, and who are we to ignore tradition? Besides, it really is PHA's fault that we're late week after week in getting the Cooperator to you. For several weeks now they've told us, early in the week, "This is it, Cooperator." And every week we've held the presses, waiting for the definite word—which this week came at 4 p.m. on Thursday. The "definite" words this week were again "Next week."

When we receive our medical bills for the ulcers resulting from this frustrating stalling, do you suppose we should turn them over to PHA for payment?

To The Editor

BAD BEHAVIOR CITED

I think it is fine for the youth of our community to have their own youth center, and I am more than willing to do my share in helping any worthwhile group.

This past week there have been young folks around soliciting subscriptions (chances for prizes at a drawing to be held September 30, 1950) to help raise funds for the "Drop Inn Youth Center." I am happy to make my contribution; however, now I am angered enough to want my contribution returned. Why should it be that the youth of our community have to be so impatient while you have to make the extra trips up and down stairs, in order to give them your contribution and well wishes? Then you find to your disgust and horror that they spent the few idle moments using a lead pencil and doodling on the outside walls of your apartment door and in addition, writing two or three lines of shameful writing on the utility house door. Really, now, when it comes to defacing the property of others (and as yet it still belongs to the Government) I believe it is time that something is done to teach our future citizens the difference between right and wrong—on their own place and when they visit someone else.

I dread to think of what I and other young mothers will apparently have to contend with—between cut clotheslines, defacing property, damaging your new garden, etc. The children aren't to receive all the blame—the parents need to take some of the blame too—but please help us who are starting to raise our families be more proud of the community we live in and make it easier for everyone concerned.

A MOTHER TO BE
P.S. The writing is still on the wall.

Milton T. William

Milton T. William died Thursday morning at Johns Hopkins Hospital after several months illness. He was buried in New York. Mr. William was a resident of Greenbelt for many years and active in the Health Association. He leaves his wife Rae, and three children, Margaret, Michael, and Danny.

Personal Touch

Doris Asbell Mednick, 3518
With Greenbelt's birth rate booming as never before — it's time we threw a few bouquets to those people who are NOT having any offspring this current season. All those who aren't, please let me know, and I'll be happy to print your names. You're news!

Now for those people who insist on being like everybody else: Mr. and Mrs. Bryan B. Adams, 1-F Laurel Hill, had a girl . . . Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Sonnenberg became the parents of a premature baby. Mrs. Sonnenberg's home . . . baby's still in the hospital . . . Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Wrenn, 69-A Ridge, had their first child, a girl, last Wednesday . . . Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hahn, 73-Q Ridge, have a new baby at their menage.

If Bernard Feig, 11-J Ridge, is off on another trip I'll never forgive him . . . last time I talked to him he had just gotten back from a business trip to Germany, Switzerland, and France and that was about a month ago . . . or maybe he won't forgive me for taking so long. He's in the export-import business and buys all types of antiques, cameras, optical equipment, and other interesting items.

Coincidentally two neighbors entertained honeymooners at the same time. The honeymooners were different, however. They were Mr. and Mrs. Callahan and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Johnson—not the honeymooners—the neighbors, of 2-C Laurel Hill and 2-D Laurel Hill, respectively. The honeymooners, respectively, were from Chicago and Pennsylvania.

Miss Sally Hennessy was surprised with a bridal shower Saturday at Mrs. Joe Lewis's home (formerly Carolyn Garner of Greenbelt). It was a double pleasure for the 28 guests present because for many it was their first visit to Carolyn's new home in Kentland, Md. Sally was also honored guest at a dinner party given by her co-workers at the office at the Neptune room on Tuesday. The bride-to-be received kitchen gadgets and a large gift from all the girls. Mind you learn how to use those gadgets, Sally. You never know, you might have to.

Buddy Slye entertained Peter Granahan and Clifford Woodward at dinner Sunday on the occasion of his twelfth birthday. After the dinner party they visited the National Arboretum and the Library of Congress in Washington, winding up for dessert at the Granahan home in University Park. So refreshing to hear of fellows who don't dote on gun-totin' Hop-A-Long Cassidy!

The John Leland family was called to Erie, Pennsylvania, Monday because of the sudden death of Mr. Leland's mother.

Mrs. Joseph Norton (nee June Nyhoff) of Rhode Island is spending several weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Herman, 1-A Parkway. With her is her son Glen . . . Peggy Winegarden's mother, Mrs. Beohon of Rochester, was on hand to witness the first Holy Communion of her granddaughter, Cathy.

A stork shower was given for Mrs. Robert Myer, 2-V Laurel Hill, at the home of Mrs. Harold Newman, 4-B Laurel Hill. Mrs. William Mullen and Mrs. Fred Kennedy were co-hostesses.

Arthur Plackett and daughter, 10-N Southway, were in Pittsburgh over the weekend to welcome a nephew and cousin from Australia.

Miss Patsy Giersch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Giersch, 21-M Ridge, won a 4-year scholarship to Notre Dame High School in Washington.

White Elephants Net $239 For Local Schools

The white elephant sale held at the Center school on Friday, May 5, earned a total of $239.30, according to the chairman, Mrs. June Morgan.

Parents were invited to an assembly held at the school last Wednesday, in order that students and parents might receive a complete report on the result of the sale. Student representatives were selected to thank those who participated in the sale.

Drop-Inn Gives Iris Corsage As Door Prize

The junior high officers at the Drop-Inn planned a surprise door prize last Saturday to honor the mother of the teenager holding a lucky number. Mrs. Paul Lung, the parent in attendance for the evening, drew number forty-nine which was held by Clydis Creech. Clydis received a white iris corsage to be given to her mother for Mother's Day.

The familiar smile of Frs. Roehling behind the Drop-Inn Snack Bar was greatly missed last Saturday night by all the boys and girls present. Mrs. Roehling during the past year has helped out behind the snack bar and has been in charge of the center on Wednesday nights, Sunday afternoons and several afternoons during the week. She no longer has the time to be with the teenagers on a regular schedule, but will continue to help them in any way she can.

Rides 'n Riders

The monthly roller-skating party planned by the junior high Drop-Inn group will be held this Saturday night at the Bladensburg roller skating rink. All those planning on going with the group are to meet at the youth center at 7 p.m., and must have permission slips from the Recreation Department signed by their parents. The teenagers are relying on parents for transportation to the rink, and still need several more cars. If any parents have available cars, please contact Fiss Donoghue at the Recreation Department or at home, Greenbelt 7621.

Vets Should Plan Summer Term Now

Veterans planning to attend summer school under the GI Bill should start making necessary arrangements now, Veterans Administration announced this week.

First, they should determine whether their VA certificates of eligibility are in order. If they are changing courses, they should also learn from VA whether they will be required to undergo advisement and guidance.

A veteran now in school who intends to continue this summer in the same school and the same course need merely register at his school. His present certificate of eligibility, on file with VA, is sufficient. If he wants to continue in the same course but at a different school, he should apply at once for a supplemental certificate of eligibility at his nearest VA office. On his application, he must list the name of the new school and name of course. The application should be sent to the VA regional office having jurisdiction over his present school.

If the veteran plans to take a different course this summer, either in his present school or at another school, he will have to take one, and possibly two, steps: first, he should apply for his supplemental certificate of eligibility; second, he should find out from VA whether his new course is or is not in the same general field as his present one. If it is found to be in the same general field, the supplemental certificate is all that's required. If it is found to be in a different general field, and his need of the new course has been determined, he may be required to take advisement and guidance from VA to find out his aptitude for the new course.

A veteran who has not had any GI Bill training before should apply at his nearest VA office for an original certificate of eligibility. On his application he must give the name of school and course. With his application, he should include a photostatic copy of his discharge papers.

VA emphasized that applications for supplemental and original certificates of eligibility may be submitted to regional office by mail. Veterans do not need to bring the applications to VA in person.

As a final step (to be taken as soon as possible) veterans should make certain that the school they wish to attend has room for him. Many summer classes will be overcrowded and are receiving more applications than they can handle.

Waltonians Plan Father-Son Trip

By E. Don Bullian

At last Tuesday's meeting the Greenbelt Izaak Walton League unanimously approved the father-and-son weekend fishing trip, scheduling it for the weekend of June 17-18 at Prince William Forest Park in Virginia. The campers will leave Greenbelt at 8 a.m. Saturday morning and return Sunday afternoon. Transportation will be arranged for all those requesting it.

A larger group than originally anticipated is attending the presidential banquet in honor of Dr. William B. Holtz of the League this Saturday at the Willard Hotel. Definite plans have been made for an enjoyable evening.

COMMENTS

By Harry M. Zubkoff

Now everybody seems to have A message to convey,
But me—I write a lot of words
With nothing much to say.

But I have many things in mind,
And thoughts of different types,
And all my thoughts are most unkind
For I have many gripes!

My actions are illogical,
My symptoms psychological.
I'm anti-sociological,
For I have many gripes!

Now just as an example,
You may quote me, if you wish,
I simply can't abide the smell
Of stale and salty fish.

And when you mention fish
I am reminded of the folks
Who lean upon your shoulder
When they tell you stale jokes.

And when you mention jokes
I am reminded of the fools
Who insist upon informing
Everybody of the rules.

And when you mention fools
I am reminded of the Joes
Who, although they are executives,
Can't see beyond their nose.

And when you mention Joes
There is a guy whose name is John
On him the shoe will fit
And it is time he put it on.

For even though he claims
That almost everything he knows,
His knowledge won't include
The rudiments of running shows.

His reasoning is magical,
His symptoms psychiatric,
His profits not theatrical,
Why won't he advertise?

Two Local Women Start Service Exchange

Two local residents, Mrs. Alice Pittman, 62-A Crescent, and Mrs. Lydalu Palmer, 1-D Eastway, have opened a new service for the residents of Greenbelt. The business name "Services Exchange" describes the venture. Their purpose is to furnish people with services they need and to furnish others with the opportunity to serve.

One feature of the transaction is that the people seeking service can swap a service to someone for the service received, without the exchange of funds between the workers, though money transactions will not be turned away.

Mrs. Pittman and Mrs. Palmer say they have already filled calls for sewing, nursing, and ironing, and have had calls for ceramics, cane-bottoming of chairs, and remodeling.

Acne Needs Care By Dermatologist

By American Tuberculosis Asso.

The skin ailment known as "acne vulgaris," characterized by the chronic appearance of facial pimples and blackheads, is a fairly common affliction. Doctors estimate that more than half the population in this country is subject to it at some time or other.

Acne occurs most frequently, and with greatest severity, in boys and girls between the ages of 12 and 25. At one time, acne was considered just "part of adolescence," and ignored as something that would be "outgrown" eventually.

Can be Serious

Doctors today feel that acne, especially when neglected, can be very serious. Even when acne is only a temporary facial disfigurement, it can do a person permanent harm, leaving "mental scars," as well as physical ones. A person, particularly a sensitive adolescent, who suffers from the facial blemishes of acne, might develop feelings of shyness, extreme reserve, or inferiority which can carry into adulthood and cause him much misery and unhappiness.

Acne is the medical term for chronic inflammation of the oil glands and hair follicles of the skin. The formation of numerous pimples and blackheads is the skin's attempt to wall in these tiny infections and keep them from spreading and getting into the bloodstream.

There are different types of acne, due to various causes, and the doctor or dermatologist is the person to determine the cause and prescribe the right treatment. The sooner the condition gets medical attention, the better the chance of arresting or curing it. "Home care" or neglect frequently spread the blemishes or even encourage the development of more serious infection.

Improved Treatments

Acne is often stubborn to cure, but medical research is constantly uncovering improved treatments for it. A recent effective treatment, studied in a Mid-west hospital, combined simple diet restrictions and rules of skin cleanliness with daily application of a cosmetic-like antiseptic lotion. The simplicity and economy of the treatment, practicable for the medical doctor as well as the skin specialist, offers new hope to the acne victim. But again, all treatment of acne should be under the supervision and advice of the doctor.

No one has ever died of acne, but thousands of people allow it to make them miserable because they do not realize that simple medical care can help or cure the unsightly condition.

New Titles Listed By Public Library

In announcing new titles at the Greenbelt public library, special mention was given to John Flynn's book on Socialism, The Road Ahead; Eric Williams' The Wooden Horse (adventure story centering around the miraculous escape of three British prisoners of war); The Writers' Book, practical advice by top experts in every field of writing; The Technique of Selling by Kelso Sutton, a down-to-earth approach to everyday sales problems; Love Story, by Ruth McKenney, author of My Sister Eileen; and Louise Tharp's The Peabody Sisters of Salem.

Fiction Too

Fiction books included a number of prize books. Debby, by Max Steele, won the 1950 Harper Prize. The Vintage, by Anthony West, was accorded the Houghton Mifflin Literary Fellowship Prize and the Eyre and Spottiswoode Award in England. It is a narrative of the mystery of man's survival after death. To Emma Smith for her Far Cry went the James Tait Black Memorial Prize for fiction. The Outlander, by Germaine Guevremont, translated by Eric Sutton, is a tale of French-Canadian peasants. It won the French-Canadian Academy Award. Margaret Landon, author of Anna and The King of Siam, has written a new book, Never Dies The Dream. John Hersey's The Wall is a tale of World War II. This And No More is the story of a happy marriage by Nancy and Benedict Freedman, authors of Mrs. Mike.

Center School PTA Meets May 23

The regular monthly meeting of the Center school PTA will be held Tuesday, May 23, at 8:15 p.m., in the social room of the community building. Topic for the meeting will be "Highlights of the Year."

Reports of the year's achievements will be made by committee chairmen. The nominating committee will present a slate of officers for election and installation. The Greenbelt High School Quartet—Mike Littleton, Noel Meriam, Jack Darling, and Dan Carruth—will provide entertainment. Refreshments will be served.

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Oliver T. Norsworthy of Cullendale, Arkansas, and was attended by her sister, Mrs. Raymond S. Walters, as matron of honor. Miss Pearl Stoffel and Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Strausburg were her bridesmaids. Thomas Freeman acted as best man and ushering were Richard Norsworthy, Raymond S. Walters, Donald Freeman, and John McNeil.

CONGRATULATIONS

Our best congrats this week are sent to our colleagues, the Parkers, a pair of folks long resident now anniversary-markers.

They live old Greenbelt style in town

at forty-five court Ridge, they work like dogs without a frown and don't indulge in bridge.

The husband draws and growls and edits, whiles, the paper; the wife abets him in his prowls and cuts, herself, a caper.

Their daughters three are well-behaved,

MarSharon and Naomi; their pastimes are not too depraved, their domicile is homey.

The better half is fond of sweets and knows a lot of answers; they have two chairs with plastic seats, a couch with ballet-dancers.

She has a voice as smooth as silk, he has a sly derision; their infant thrives on mother's milk and watches television.

The daughters draw upon the wall, their charm is quite outrageous; their parents' lot is sought by all, as highly advantageous.

Mere strangers like them very well, their friends think they're a riot; and though they raise a lot of—well, their nabors think they're quiet.

The have an afghan worked in wool and curtains made of dimity; they spend their summers in the pool and stew with equanimity.

They're bound to come to no good end,

Not so much bite—as bark-ers; So here's best wishes from a friend To those good guys, the Parkers. A Friend

Let's fill those tune Baskets. Register your child for singing —7 years up. The earlier the better, but never too late. Call LYDALU PALMER - 5201
